Dear Friends:

Thank you so much for the donation of $750 to Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center (MSKCC), the world's premier institution for cancer care. Your contribution helped to raise funds for ovarian cancer research. The Center is recognized worldwide for its expertise in diagnosing and treating ovarian cancer. Your support helps to ensure that promising laboratory advances are made available to patients in the shortest possible time frame.

Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center continues to set the pace for advances in research and treatment, providing patient care of the highest order and conducting groundbreaking investigations into the prevention, causes, diagnosis, and treatment of cancer. Furthermore, the Center actively engages in establishing a national model for post-treatment services for cancer patients and their families. Our services to date have already greatly assisted our many patients who are, once again, leading full and active lives.

I have included a certificate of appreciation for your contribution. We appreciate the commitment and generosity that you have shown the Center, and I know I speak for everyone here in offering my sincere thanks for your encouragement.

Best wishes,

Stephanie Rigione
