Stay Connected

Volume 1 May 16, 2010 By: gamepoint121 – Sandy

Welcome to the first edition of the ecribbage Stay Connected newsletter. I am new at this type of venture so please be patient and open with all suggestions and communication. It should be a lot of fun. The idea is to communicate some fun facts and for all of us to get to know each other and all the games here a little better. Prettysmurfette has agreed to help out here and have a little corner of her own as well as paul and corrina at KCUK. Of course Damien will be the major contributor with all his facts, figures and just overall knowledge of it all. So without further introduction...here we go.....

KC Corner:

"I wonder if I can sneak in a game before they notice"

Hi, my name is KC...if any of you ever had any doubt as to whether my owner, master, keeper of the treats – (you know her as Sandy or gamepoint121) is a kc-aholic..just check out my name. I am a dog not a game. As if that is not enough to drive me to eat grass, she has now decided that I should be the "mascot" for the kc corner in some newsletter. Oh joy, joy she is even in the process of making me some "ecribbage" t-shirts. Will it ever end?

Well, enough of my whining (I get scolded for that). I should get on with some important information here. This corner will be used for kings cribbage information from me and all of you who decide to participate. You can email kc-aholic – er uh, I mean, gamepoint121 your kc stories, tips, questions or suggestions anytime to gamepoint121@gmail.com. Signing off now, so I can try to take a nap. It gets hard with all the "nice one", "awesome" and "oooohhhh ahhhhhhh's" going on in this house.

"KC"

Kings Cribbage Connections - UK.

A big hi to all the eCribbage community players from Paul & Corrina at KCUK.

Sandy – gamepoint121 contacted us to tell us she is going to run a "news letter" on eCribbage, and we would like to say, we wish her every success with this new venture. Sounds like a great idea, and hopefully this will be a great link to read personal views and stories, learn more about eCribbage, and it's community and club players. We very much look forward to reading it.

We distribute the 'Kings Cribbage' board game here in the UK, a father, and daughter family business. This came about because we are both crazy about Cribbage, and we were looking for something else Cribbage oriented to challenge our game play. We by chance found the 'Kings Cribbage' board game, and could not believe it played so well, this lead to Damien's on-line unique site, and now we just have to share these two great experiences with others in the UK.

Through the year we run Kings Cribbage board game demonstrations at Stores, Shops, Craft Fairs, Clubs. It always attracts great interest, even to non-Cribbage players. Sadly, Cribbage seems to of slipped past the notice of a generation in the UK, and is only a memory to some. It seems Canada and the USA are boldly flying the flag, so we hope eCribbage and our efforts will bring the UK a great Canadian board game, and the best of Cribbage on-line.

You can find more about us on www.kingscribbageuk.com - It would be good to hear from you to get eCribbage and the KC movement moving in the UK.

So glad we found ecribbage, thank you Damien for such a great site, and for all the great games on line you guys.

Paul - KCUK

Crib Corner

Oh the wonderful game of cribbage. You know...the one we love to hate. HUH.

In this section we will have your stories, tips, questions and suggestions for cribbage. Please email all information to gamepoin121@gmail.com.

I will get it started right now with some expected crib point tables compiled from information from some of the greats of the game, Hessel, Rasmussen, Bowman and Schell. These discard tables tell you the average crib point total when you throw the connecting cards in your/or your opponents crib.
